STUDENTS REACHED

They've gone quiet about the future.

? What you already see

You've built the wellbeing program, the pastoral care, and the check-ins. For a lot of students in Years 9 to 12, the internal compass still reads blank.

They've absorbed a constant stream of bad news, comparison, and noise. Most have quietly lost sight of who they are and where they're going.

Ask them what they want to do after school, and most just shrug.

→ What Hope Unlimited does

Hope Unlimited is 3 hours that cut through. No screens, no phones. Pen and paper, a quiet room, and a message they don't get anywhere else.

Glen takes a full cohort through purpose, then what's actually possible.

Hope is a skill. We name it, practise it, and rebuild it. By the final minute, every student has a vision and a moonshot in their own hand.

The seminar, in 2 modules (3 hours)

1 The power of purpose

Students name their character strengths and write a vision they can actually see. Motivation alone won't shift a Year 10 first thing in the morning. Vocabulary will, so we give them the words. They leave with a list of possibilities and a written goal.

2 Unstoppable

We borrow Google's idea of moonshot goals and put it in the hands of a 16-year-old. Students hear what's possible, then write what they're going for. Your pastoral staff get the same stories, so the conversation continues after the seminar.

Students leave with a clear sense of who they are and where they're going in their own handwriting, the 4 sub-skills that build hope (grit, optimism, courage, and resilience), and one specific action they're taking the next morning.

Why schools book Glen, then book him again.

25 years on stage. 10,000+ presentations. Many of Australia's leading schools have run our programs every year for more than a decade.

“

A big part of my story is mental health. I struggled with it for 3 years and thankfully came out the other end. Today I am the happiest I've ever been, and I keep chasing my dreams. Your talk sparked a desire to help youth mental health and advocate for people like me who lose their voice.

Year 12 student

Hunter Valley Grammar School, NSW

Hearing you say depression isn't a life sentence, only a season, really resonated with me. I'm now thinking about how to chase my dreams and not care what others think, which is a big thing for me.

Year 11 student

Arndell Anglican School, NSW

I was sick of mindlessly scrolling on TikTok, and after today I deleted the app. Ever since I got home this afternoon I haven't been able to stop thinking and talking about today.

Year 10 student

Burgmann Anglican School, ACT

It was like a wake-up call, a snap back to reality I really needed. Your seminar reminded me of my gifts and talents, and that dreams are important. I'm more hopeful for my future now.

Year 10 student

All Hallows' School, QLD

You made it clear, with steps I could follow. I realised my problem was starting too big. You've motivated me to begin small, with the seed planted in new soil.

MEET GLEN

The person on the stage

Glen Gerreyn, founder of The HopeFULL Institute and former Young Australian of the Year (Qld, Community Service). He has spent 25 years building hope into young people, reaching over a million students. 750 schools and counting.

Glen is plain-spoken and direct, and he doesn't swear to win the room. He leads with story, then strategy. Students sit forward. Staff take notes too.

Give Years 9 to 12 three hours that cut through.

- Three hours, with breaks. 3 hours including breaks set by your bell times. Built for Years 9 to 12.
- In-person only. On your campus, in your hall. We don't run this online.
- Room rules that work. Pen and paper, no phones, quiet enough to think. You provide the hall, AV, and water. We bring the rest.
- Whole-school value. Every student gets the seminar workbook, plus follow-up resources for your wellbeing team.
- Book early for choice. Hope Unlimited is in demand and dates go fast. Get in early for the most flexibility on your year-level calendar.
